

Get NADCA's Stamp of Approval on Your Company's Marketing Efforts

Purchase DCE & LINKS Reprints

Reprints can be a valuable third-party endorsement for your company to use as a marketing tool.

Reprints help build credibility and can be tremendous promotional endorsements. They can be designed to meet individual or corporate needs and specifications. NADCA can enhance reprints to include information such as a booth number, special contact information, or even replace other company's advertisements with your own.

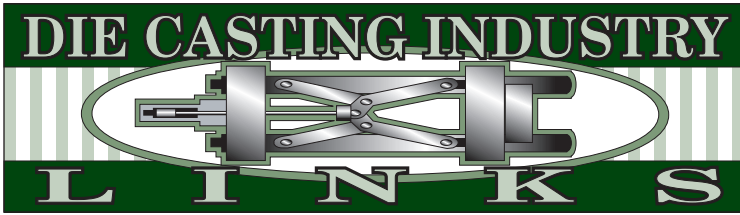

An Electronic Reprint has many options, including posting it on your Web site, e-mailing it to customers or sending it out attached to your company newsletter.

Hard-Copy Reprints may be used to address any of the following:

- Leave behind on sales calls
- Press releases
- Employee training manuals
- Direct-mail promotions
- Corporate displays
- Showroom displays
- Trade show handouts
- Message to stockholders
